

Please do not restrict my ability to receive weather and traffic updates on my XM radio. I love this service and it is the only form of radio I currently listen to. It also is helpful when traveling away from home since you do not have to search for local channels.